

To my amazing friend!

It has been so much fun to watch you grow in the Lord over this past month. We have learned so much together about how to reflect Christ's love and His light through the things we say and do.

Most importantly, we have learned the true meaning of Christmas. We know that Christmas is fun to celebrate and gifts are great! But we celebrate Christmas because God gave us the greatest gift of all! He sent His one and only son, a baby, to be born in and live among us.

He sent Jesus so that we can be forgiven of our bad choices and so that we can be with Jesus and God for the rest of forever. How cool is that?

I may only get to spend a month with you, but Jesus is with you ALWAYS. No matter where you go or what you do, Jesus will always be with you.

As I leave to go back to work with Santa, I want you to remember this one very important thing:

You are loved.

Jesus loves you more than you will ever be able to understand. He loves you so much that He died on a Cross for you!

As you go into the new year, take Jesus with you wherever you go. Let your actions and your words reflect the love of Jesus into others' lives.

You are an amazing kid! I have had so much fun with you, and I can't wait to see you again next year!

Love,
Your Elf
